

8/20/72
Ariel Murphy
Rites Pending

Mrs. Ariel Murphy, 79, a resident of the Mayflower Home, died Sunday evening at Grinnell General Hospital, following an extended illness.

She was the widow of the Rev. Lawrence Murphy, who preceded her in death April 30 of this year.

Survivors include her two sons, Lawrence of New York City and Don of Fairbanks, Alaska.

Funeral services for Mrs. Murphy are pending at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home.

University of Wisconsin. He served Congregational churches in Spring Green, Lake Mills, and Durand, Wis., and Dubuque, Onawa, Corning, and Glenwood, Iowa. They retired to Sioux City, and the Rev. Mr. Murphy assisted churches in that community, as well as in Norfolk, Neb. They came to Grinnell in 1961 to live at Mayflower Home, and he served part time in the various churches here. The Rev. Mr. Murphy preceded his wife in death April 30 of this year.

Ariel Murphy
Services Held

Ariel H. Murphy, 79, a resident of the Mayflower Home, died Sunday evening, Aug. 20, at Grinnell General Hospital, following an extended illness.

The daughter of Edward and Amelia Riley Parke, she was born July 19, 1893, at Richland Center, Wis. She received her education in that community and was also a graduate of White Water State College. She taught for three years in Richland Center and for six years at Gailsville, Wis. She was also head of the junior college in that community for some time. In 1920 she continued her education at the University of Chicago, graduating in 1922.

She was married to the Rev. Lawrence E. Murphy in the chapel at the University of Chicago. Following their marriage, they both taught in missionary school in the Ozarks of southern Missouri for two years. The Rev. Mr. Murphy served as an assistant pastor for a Methodist church in Columbia, Mo. and later they both taught at the

Mrs. Murphy is survived by her two sons, Lawrence of New York City and Don of Fairbanks, Alaska; a granddaughter, Katherine Murphy of Fairbanks; and a sister, Mrs. Don W. Snyder of Walla Walla, Wash. Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, and five brothers.

Interment services for Mrs. Murphy were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Chester Cemetery, and memorial services were conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the Denison Chapel, Mayflower Home. The Rev. Newell E. Davis officiated, and pianist was Miss Ruth Campbell.

The James Schalinske Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Lawrence E.