

Mr. Murphy rites today

William Frederick Murphy, 68, of Rte. 2, Malcom, died suddenly Friday evening at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services for Mr. Murphy will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Marcus E. Reitz, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist will be Charles Hoogland, and pallbearers will be Leslie Douglass, Louie Emmert, Merland Pfantz, Don Larsen, William R. Morrison and Gail Wheeler. Burial will be at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The son of Frederick and Lean Olson Murphy, he was born March 17, 1907, on the family farm in Malcom Township. He attended rural school near his home. Mr. Murphy farmed all of his life.

Survivors include two sisters, Ruth J. Murphy and Mrs. Gladys L. Wisecarver of rural Malcom, and two brothers, Harold D. Murphy and Raymond E. Murphy, also of rural Malcom.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Letterheads, envelopes, business cards, statements . . . See The Grinnell Herald-Register.