

Wayne McBroom

Wayne McBroom, 65, Longview, Wash., formerly of Kellogg, died Monday, Sept. 21, at the Hospice Hospital in Longview.

His body has been donated to medical science and no service will be held. Remains will be cremated. Memorials may be made to the Kellogg Historical Society, American Cancer Society or Hospice.

The son of Lyle and Irene Wastier McBroom, he was born Oct. 31, 1926, in Kellogg. He was educated in the Kellogg and Grinnell area schools and graduated from Kellogg High School in 1944. Upon graduation he enlisted in the United States Navy in which he served two years, then later entered the United States Air Force in which he served 20 years. Following his retirement, he was employed by the United States Postal Service for ten years. He was united in marriage with Doris Schock Feb. 17, 1952 and to this union were born one daughter and two sons.

He is survived by his former wife Doris; two sons Kirk McBroom, Las Vegas, Nevada, and Augie Wayne McBroom, Salinas, Calif.; one daughter Susan Elliott, Longview; two granddaughters and two grandsons and six sisters, Lucille O'Hara and Jean O'Halloran, Grinnell; Norine Beaty, Akron, Ohio; Maxine Purvis, Kellogg; Patricia Jeffreys, Olathe, Kan., and Donna Wedemeyer, Jefferson. He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother Carroll and one sister Artye Mae.