

Carol F. 'Mac' McCain Bc 1-27-1999

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 21, at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell for Carol F. "Mac" McCain, 71, who died Jan. 19, 1999, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center. Pastor Ken Wallace of the Newburg-Chester U.C.C. officiated.

Margaret Wheeler, organist, provided the selections "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Peace in the Valley." Pallbearers were Ron Adams, Marty Bailey, Dennis Durr, Pete Goodrich, Jim Graham and Kevin Kriegel. Veterans ceremonial rites were performed by members of the Brooklyn American Legion. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

The son of Roy E. and Blanche Oldaker McCain, Mac was born Dec. 6, 1927, in Marengo. He was raised in the Malcom area and received his education in a country school near his home and was a 1945 graduate of Grinnell High School. He was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps and was stationed in Guam during the post-World War II period.

He was married to Edith Bailey Dec. 27, 1950, in Unionville, Mo., and the couple made their home in rural Malcom. Mac owned and operated McCain's Kitchen Store in Grinnell and Newton for several years.

He later was employed with D & P Lumber in Newton and did carpentry and finish work for F & M Bank in Newton and Grinnell State Bank. He retired from the Grinnell College Maintenance Department in 1991.

He also worked as a cabinet salesman for Wholesale Suppliers Company in Cedar Rapids and was a carpenter in the area for many years. He was a member of the Brooklyn American Legion.

Mac held a great love for his family. He enjoyed woodworking and remodeling and took great pride in his carpentry. He was well informed on current events, enjoyed socializing with his family and friends, and held a wonderful sense of humor. He had a passion for his vintage 1967 Olds convertible and was a fan of professional wrestling.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Ralph, Dale and Max McCain.

Survivors are his wife, Edith, of Malcom; three children, Carol Brown of Grinnell, Murlin McCain of Malcom, and Kathy Kriegel of Brooklyn; six grandchildren, Julie, Jared and James McCain of Malcom, and Chelsea, A.J., and Beth Kriegel of Brooklyn, and one sister, Joyce Haunsperger of Newton.

Should friends desire, memorial contributions might be made to the American Diabetes Association.

Carol McCain, 71

Carol F. "Mac" McCain of Malcom died Jan. 19, 1999 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Mr. McCain's funeral was Thursday, Jan. 21 at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell.

Pastor Ken Wallace of Newburg-Chester U.C.C. was officiant. Organist Margaret Wheeler played "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Peace in The Valley."

Pallbearers were Ron Adams, Marty Bailey, Dennis Durr, Pete Goodrich, Jim Graham and Kevin Kriegel.

Members of the Brooklyn American Legion performed veterans' ceremonial rites. Interment was in Ivy Hill Cemetery in Malcom.

The son of Roy E. and Blanche Oldaker McCain, Mr. McCain was born Dec. 6, 1927 in Marengo. He was raised in the Malcom area and educated in a country school near his home. He was a 1945 graduate of Grinnell High School.

A veteran of the US Marine Corps, he was stationed in Guam during the post-World War II period.

On Dec. 27, 1950, he married Edith Bailey in Unionville, Mo. The couple made their home in rural Malcom.

Mr. McCain owned and operated

McCain's Kitchen Store in Grinnell and Newton for several years. Later, he worked for D&P Lumber in Newton and did carpentry and finish work for F&M Bank in Newton and at Grinnell State Bank. He also worked as a cabinet salesman for Wholesale Suppliers in Cedar Rapids and was a carpenter in the area for many years.

In 1991, he retired from the Grinnell College Maintenance Department.

He was a member of the Brooklyn American Legion. He enjoyed woodworking, carpentry and remodeling. He was interested in current events, working on his vintage 1967 Olds convertible and he was a fan of professional wrestling.

His parents and three brothers, Ralph, Dale and Max McCain, preceded him in death.

Mr. McCain is survived by his wife, Edith of Malcom; three children, Carol Brown of Grinnell, Murlin McCain of Malcom and Kathy Kriegel of Brooklyn; six grandchildren, Julie, Jared and James McCain of Malcom and Chelsea, A.J. and Beth Kriegel of Brooklyn and one sister, Joyce Haunsperger of Newton.

Memorials may be directed to the American Diabetes Association.

Carol 'Mac' McCain

Carol F. "Mac" McCain, 71, of Malcom died Tuesday, Jan. 19, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ken Wallace, pastor of the Newburg-Chester United Church of Christ, officiating. Organist was Margaret Wheeler, and pallbearers were Ron Adams, Marty Bailey, Dennis Durr, Pete Goodrich, Jim Graham and Kevin Kriegel.

Veterans ceremonial rites were performed by members of the Brooklyn and Malcom American Legion posts, with burial in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The son of Roy E. and Blanche Oldaker McCain, he was born Dec. 6, 1927, in Marengo. He was raised in the Malcom area and was a 1945 graduate of Grinnell High School. He was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps and was stationed in Guam during the post-World War II period.

He was married to Edith May Bailey Dec. 27, 1950, in Unionville, Mo., and they made their home in rural Malcom.

He owned and operated McCain's Kitchen Store in Grinnell and Newton for several years. He later was employed with D&P Lumber in Newton and did carpentry and finish work for F&M Bank in Newton and Grinnell State Bank. He retired from the Grinnell College Maintenance Department in 1991.

Mr. McCain also worked as a cabinet salesman for Wholesale Suppliers Co. in Cedar Rapids and was a carpenter in the area for many years. He was a member of the Brooklyn American Legion.

Surviving are his wife; three children, Carol Brown of Grinnell, Murlin McCain of Malcom and Kathy Kriegel of Brooklyn; six grandchildren; and one sister, Joyce Haunsperger of Newton.

He was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers, Ralph, Dale and Max.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association. HR 1-21-1999

MR 1-27-1999