Opal McCammant, 75, of 902 Prince St., Grinnell, died of a heart attack Sunday, Oct. 23, at Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. William Schlobohm, pastor of the Malcom-Sheridan Parish, officiating. Organist was Joan Schneekloth, and pallbearers were William, Dennis, Mark, Virgil, Timothy and Tracy McCammant.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Memorials may be made to the Malcom Methodist Church.

The daughter of William and Cora Low Mallatt, she was born March 1, 1913, in Madison County. She attended rural school in Madison County and later in Marshalltown.

She was married to Virgil McCammant April 16, 1932, at Rock Island, Ill. The couple farmed near Montezuma and moved to Malcom in 1945.

Mrs. McCammant was an Avon representative and an interior decorator. She moved to Marshalltown in 1965 and to Grinnell in the early 1970s.

Survivors include three sons, Kenneth of Mitchellville and Richard and Keith of Grinnell; nine grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and four sisters, Ferne Harrah, Fayra Rohde and Mildred Cordes, all of Marshalltown, and Dorothea Callahan of Conrad.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Lucille Proffitt, Clara Doane and Betty Mallatt; and one brother, Melvin Mallatt.
