H-R December 10, 1981 Mrs. McCargar services held

Darlene M. McCargar, 59, of Gilman died early Saturday at her home of an apparent heart attack. Dec. 4

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Jerry D. Cassidy, pastor of the Gilman Community Church, and Harvey Pence of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Marshalltown, officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Tim Allen, Max Dobson, Larry Hinegardner, Keith Ryan, Carey Slingluff, Kenneth Slingluff and Dick Slingluff. Burial was at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

The daughter of Raymond and Birdie Smith Slingluff Sr., she was born April 23, 1922, at Montour. She attended Montour schools, graduating from Montour High School in 1939. Following her education, she lived in Alliance, Ohio, and was employed at a defense plant. She was married to Omar Olson, and the couple lived in Alliance.

She was later married to Ned

W. McCargar, and they lived in Gilman. She was associated with her mother in the operation of the Gilman Cafe for three years, and for the past eight years she and her husband operated the Dar-Mac Tavern in Gilman. She was a member of two bowling teams associated with the Totem Pole Bowling Alley in Marshalltown.

She is survived by her mother, Birdie Slingluff of Gilman; her husband, Ned; three children and two stepchildren, Sandra Oehrig of Plainfield, Ill., Randall Olson of Gilman, Rusty McCargar of Gilman, Darlene Alexander of St. Charles and Leslie McCargar of Gilman; eight grandchildren; three brothers, Raymond Slingluff of LeGrand, Richard Slingluff of Marshalltown and Rex Slingluff of Marshalltown; and two sisters, Dorothy Dobson of Nevada and Mae Kvinlaug of Gilman.

She was preceded in death by her father and her first husband.
