

Donovan McClure

Donovan "Don" McClure, 62, of 1621 S. 15th Ave. W., Newton, died of cancer Saturday, Sept. 4, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Ankeny, officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner. Pallbearers were Greydon, Randall, Arthur, Peter, Oscar and Bradley Jenison.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

A memorial fund has been established, and donations may be sent in care of the Smith Funeral Home.

The son of Roy Manford and Eva Angeline Thiel McClure, he was born March 29, 1931, in Marshalltown. The family moved to Belmont where he graduated from high school. He also attended Iowa State University. During the Korean conflict he served with the U.S. Army in Germany.

He was married to Jeraldine Jenison April 29, 1956, in Belmont. The couple farmed for a few years near Belmont and later moved to Iowa Falls where he was employed by King Construction Co. The family lived in Colo before moving to Grinnell in 1968. For the past 20 years Mr. McClure worked as a construction superintendent throughout the U.S. and Canada for Todd and Sargent Construction Co. of Ames.

He was a member of the United Methodist church, the Eagles Lodge, the V.F.W. and the American Legion.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Colin of Grand Island, Neb., and Owen of Rochester, Minn.; three daughters, Romaine Fenner of Grinnell, Jennifer Feddersen of Marion and Mikki Halverson of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Robert of Klemme and Max of Tama; two sisters, Joyce Markham of Belmont and Mary Ellen Ersland of Menominee, Mich.; and 10 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

H - R

October 7, 1993