

FIFTY-THREE YEARS OF HAPPY MARRIED LIFE
BROKEN BY DEATH

Nov. 1930

Robert A. McCoy, the son of Robert and Margaret McCoy, was born in Brooklyn, New York, on February 14, 1854, and passed away at a local hospital on last Monday morning at the age of 83 years and 9 months. Last services were held at the Snyder Brothers Chapel at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon with Rev. W. J. Stewart in charge. Burial was in the Hazelwood cemetery.

Mr. McCoy came west when he was 15 years of age. He established his home in Grinnell where he was united in marriage with Alvareta Roseman on October 26, 1886. His death closes a happy union extending over a period of 53 years. To this union four children were born all of whom, with his wife, are left to mourn his going. The children include Mrs. Myrtle E. Millsagle, with whom he was making his home at the time of his death, Mrs. Hazel M. Pope, Robert H. McCoy, and George W. McCoy.

He is also survived by four grandchildren: including Rex and Freddie Millsagle and Mrs. Fred Wray of Grinnell and Robert Pope of Chicago. There is also one great-grandchild, Sherry Wray, of Grinnell.

Mr. McCoy was employed by the Spaulding Manufacturing Company during its tenure in Grinnell. The fact that his services were retained by this company for almost 35 years speaks well for his qualities as a workman and his ability to get on with his fellowmen. His cheerful disposition and courageous smile, will be missed in the home and on the streets of Grinnell.

Mr. McCoy's admiration for little children was a distinguishing quality. His little great-granddaughter, Sherry Wray, has done much to gladden his heart during the past two years when pain and suffering were his to be bravely endured.
