Ellen Samantha Allen was born Sept. 5, 1840, in Silver Creek, Cass county, Mich. At the age of five she moved with her parents to a home near Stoughton, Wisconsin. As a young woman she graduated from Milton Academy now known as Milton College. She was a member of the Baptist church there. She taught for a number of years in Illinois, staying there with a sister.

On March 2, 1867, she was united in marriage with W. H. McCulloch. They lived on a farm in La Moine township, Illinois, for two years. In the spring of 1869 they moved to Rutland, LaSalle county, Ill., and in the fall of the same year emigrated to Jasper county, Iowa, a short distance from where Newburg was afterwards located, and started a home on the virgin prairie. They moved to Grinnell in the fall of 1924.

Four children were born to this union; Mrs. M. H. Rowe of Grinnell, who has been making her home with her parents and caring for them, J. V. McCulloch of Kanawha, Ia., H. H. McCulloch and Mrs. Lillian Lane of the Newburg neighborhood. There are ten grand children and several great grand children.

Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch were charter members of the Christian Union, an organization which preceded the Congregational church at Newburg, and she was an earnest and efficient member of the church when it was organized. For a number of years she was a valued member of the Eastern Star of Grinnell.

Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch were unusually blessed in the long period of years which they were privileged to live together. Their happy golden wedding observance was an event which is still pleasantly remembered by their many friends. They have lived worthy, useful lives and Mr. McCulloch has universal sympathy in the loss of his helpmeet during so many years.
