

—James McCullough was born in Ireland in 1823 and died at his home in Grinnell on the 13th day of Jan., 1902. Mr. McCullough was one of the pioneers of the state having lived here for thirty-six years. He was one of the strong men who have helped make this western country what it is. He leaves one son James McCullough of Oskaloosa and two daughters Mrs. Phil Streck and Mrs. Dan O'Hearn both of this city. The funeral was conducted from the Catholic church at 10:30 Tuesday morning by Rev. James Curtin of Brooklyn and the remains laid to rest in Hazelwood Cemetery. Those present at the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. James McCullough of Oskaloosa.
