

Rites Monday for Former Resident

Funeral services were conducted at St. Patrick's Catholic church here Monday at 10 a.m. for James McFadden, 93, a former resident of this area. The Rev. Bernard Kammerick, pastor, said the requiem mass.

Mr. McFadden died Nov. 7 at Altadena, Calif.

Burial was in Brooklyn's Calvary cemetery with Joseph Collum, Sr., Giles Crider, John Curran, Raphael Gallagher, Merlin Stoker and Joseph Collum, Jr. serving as pallbearers.

Born in Mauch Chunk, Pa.,

April 4, 1875, Mr. McFadden had lived most of his life on a farm southeast of Brooklyn. For the past ten years he had spent most of the time in California, returning here occasionally for summer visits. He had never married.

He is survived by seven sisters, Katherine Cranston of Pasadena, Calif., Mary O'Farrell of St. Louis, Mo., Ann Cox, Elizabeth Emal and Certude Woods, all of Altadena, Calif., Tess Gray of Los Altos,

9--Brooklyn (La.) Chronicle--November 14, 1968