

Rites Held for 'Bill' McGarry

Funeral rites were conducted at St. Bridget Catholic church in Victor Wednesday for William Albert "Bill" McGarry, longtime area resident who died Sunday evening at Grinnell General hospital, following a lengthy illness.

He had been hospitalized four weeks and developed pneumonia late Saturday.

Father Patrick McCoy, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church in Brooklyn, officiated at the rites and burial was in Calvary cemetery, Brooklyn. Casket bearers were Anthony, Gerald, and Lloyd Kriegel, Roger Hall, Jack Chedester, and Alfred Robey. Flowers were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Elver Roudabush and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Heishman.

Mr. McGarry, son of John and Emma Burry McGarry was born at Victor, Sept. 5, 1921. On Jan. 31, 1951 he was married to Elizabeth (Betty) Bennett of Chelsea. They were the parents of three children, Teresa, Joseph and Kathleen, all at home.
