

USEFUL LIFE OF MRS. G. B. McGUIN ENDS

Funeral Of A Beloved Grinnell Woman Held

Feb. 15 Wednesday, 1937

Funeral services for Mrs. G. B. McGuin, who passed away Monday afternoon at a local hospital, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Congregational church, conducted by Rev. Robert Inglis. Mrs. Margery Eouma and Mrs. E. B. T. Spencer sang two songs, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Rock of Ages." Pall bearers were A. M. Burton, Walter Noeiy, John Peters, J. G. Shildlett, Earl and Will Holley of Brooklyn. Burial was in the Brooklyn cemetery.

Mrs. McGuin sustained a broken hip and wrist in her home on January 20 and was getting along nicely when she suffered a stroke February 7 from which death resulted.

Mrs. Olive Emilia McGuin, daughter of Jens C. Olson and Mary Kruse Olson, both of whom came to this country from Denmark, was born at Amery, Wis., April 20, 1865. She was a teacher for a time. She married George B. McGuin in 1886 and the young couple settled in Brooklyn that year and moved to Grinnell in 1888. For a great many years prior to Mr. McGuin's death in 1927 he was assistant postmaster in Grinnell. Two children were born to this union, Mrs. E. B. (Flora) Lindstrom of Montezuma and Mrs. Guy (Mary) Gorsuch of Grinnell who survive her with three grandchildren, Frances and Dorothy Lindstrom and Robert Gorsuch, also her brother and sisters Henry Olson and Mrs. Carl Nygaard of Tacoma, Washington, and Mrs. Nora Sandquest of Troy, Idaho.

Mrs. McGuin united with the Congregational church in 1893 and was a member of the W. C. T. U. and of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Post Office. She was active in both the Sunset and Searchlight clubs which are among the older clubs of Grinnell.

George Bronson