

J. M.

Mrs. McKarahan

Services Held

10 5-1937

Here Monday

Mrs. Cora McKarahan, aged 73, former resident of Grinnell, passed away last Friday at her home in Des Moines.

Mrs. McKarahan was born on a farm near West Branch. In the year of 1909 she accompanied her husband to Grinnell where he operated a hardware store in the building owned by H. W. Spaulding where the J. C. Penney store is now located.

Funeral services were held in Des Moines and then the body was brought to Grinnell where a short service was conducted at Hazelwood cemetery at 2:00 o'clock Monday by the P. E. O. chapter of Grinnell. Mrs. McKarahan and Mabel McKarahan were members of G. A. Chapter, P. E. O., in Des Moines.

The services were beautiful and impressive. Mrs. McKarahan was a much loved member of the Drummond Club of Grinnell whose members attended the services in a body. The floral decorations were many, attesting the high esteem in which Mrs. McKarahan was held.

Mrs. McKarahan is survived by one son, Elmer, of Evanston, Ill., and daughter, Mabel, of Des Moines, two granddaughters, one sister, Mrs. Sherman Schroeder of Battle Creek, Mich., and a brother, Elmer Coulter of Iowa City. The relatives attending the funeral were Mr. Coulter, Mrs. Sherman Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKarahan and two daughters, and intimate friends from Des Moines, Miss Pearl Hansen, Mrs. Kimball and many others.

The pall bearers were John Goodfellow, H. W. Spaulding, Geo. H. Harpold, C. A. Blair, Elmer Bortel and H. M. Harris. At the close of the service Mrs. Grant led a number of friends and a few friends