

WALTER SCOTT

Hartwick Rites For

Mrs. McLennan

Inez V.

Funeral services were held at the Hartwick Congregational church Wednesday for Mrs. Waldo McLennan, longtime Hartwick resident who died Sunday at University hospital, Iowa City. She had been in failing health for some time.

Rev. Donald Tuck officiated at the services. Mrs. Iris Ericson was organist, Mrs. Laura Korns, the soloist. Flowers were cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Novak and Mr. and Mrs. George Williams.

Casket bearers were Mrs. McLennan's grandsons: Larry Chvala, Dick Chvala, Dale Nelson, Kenneth Nelson, Wayne McLennan, Roger McLennan, Bill Hultman, Jack Hultman, Ronnie Nelson.

Inez V. Share McLennan, daughter of John and Sarah Adlaid Share, was born Oct. 18, 1886 near Koszta.

In her early years, she was baptized at the Koszta Methodist church.

She married Waldo S. McLennan on Dec. 28, 1910. They made their home on the McLennan farm north of Hartwick, until moving into Hartwick in 1944. She was a member of the Hartwick Congregational church and a member of the Women's Fellowship.

She is survived by her husband, Waldo; son, Harold; two daughters, Evelyn Nelson and June Hultman; 11 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren; three sisters, Lucy Fiene Amy White and Effie Klein. She was preceded in death by her parents; a son, Lyle; and two grandchildren.

4--Brooklyn (Ia.) Chronicle-

-August 7, 1969