

Blanche McQuigg Dies This Morn; Wednesday Rites

W. H. Am
~~Dec 24-64~~
Blanche McQuigg, age 85, died Monday morning at a local nursing home where she had been a patient for the past year and 3 months.

Mrs. McQuigg moved to Grinnell four years ago and had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Kyle Jones. Prior to this she lived in the Blockton and Redding, Iowa, communities.

She was a member of the Grinnell Methodist church.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Kyle (Eula) Jones of Grinnell; two brothers, William and Paul McQuigg, both of Boulder, Colo.; 11 grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, three brothers and a sister. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, a son and a daughter, and four brothers and one sister.

Funeral services are being planned for Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist church in Redding, Iowa.

For additional information, friends may call the James-Schalluske Funeral Home.

Thursday, December 24, 1964

Conduct Services At Redding For Blanche McQuigg

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Redding Methodist church at Redding, Iowa, for Mrs. Blanche McQuigg, 85, who died Monday morning at a Grinnell nursing home.

Officiating at the services were the Rev. Chester E. Custer of the Grinnell Methodist church and the Rev. Clarence Landis. Vocal music was provided by Raymond Saville, accompanied by Mrs. Bernice Lynch at the organ.

Pallbearers were Aigie Saville, Alvin Saville, Leland Saville, Lloyd Saville, Emerson Saville, and Julian Galloway. Interment was in the Redding cemetery with James-Schalluske Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Jacob A. and Mary E. Henderson Saville, she was born on July 3, 1879, at Redding. She was a graduate of the Redding schools and also attended Simpson College.

On August 27, 1902, at Redding, she was united in marriage with William McQuigg, who preceded her in death on May 6, 1947.

Mrs. McQuigg was a lifelong resident of Ringgold county until four years ago when she moved to Grinnell and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Kyle Jones.

She was a member of the Methodist church.

Survivors include her daughter, Mrs. Kyle (Eula) Jones of Grinnell; two sons, William and Paul McQuigg, both of Boulder, Colo.;

11 grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; three brothers, Ray, Bernard and Elmer Saville, all of Redding; and one sister, Mrs. Ed Forbes of Butler, Minn.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one son, one daughter, four brothers, and one sister.