

Ella Lola Holmes was born in East-Otto, New York, Aug. 24th, 1852. She came to Iowa with her parents, when a young girl. She taught in the public schools until her marriage to Olaf Nelson in March, 1873. One son was born to them, who died at the age of 2½ years. Since that time, Mrs. Nelson gradually failed in health until her death on Feb. 20th, 1903. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Marvin, at the home of her father, Mr. John Holmes, in Grinnell, Iowa, at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Feb. 22nd, 1903. Her remains were laid to rest in Hazelwood Cemetery.
