

4-5 OBITUARY. 1919

Jessie Uhl Nelson.

Jessie Uhl was born at Maxwell, Iowa, July 26, 1888. She died of influenza-pneumonia at Bisbee, N. D., March 29, 1919.

She was graduated from the Mitchellville High school in 1906 and from Grinnell College in 1911 with the A. B. degree. While in college she took an active part in Y. W. C. A. and athletics, and was a member of the Junior Annual Board. After graduation she taught in the high school at Mitchellville and later at Hawarden, Iowa.

On July 15, 1914, she married E. L. Nelson of Goldfield, also a member of the class of 1911. She leaves her husband, son James Rodney, 3 years old, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Uhl, of Mitchellville and the following brothers and sisters: W. F. Uhl, of Minneapolis; Miss Caroline Uhl, of Mitchellville; Mrs. R. F. Nuckolls, of Grinnell; E. J. Uhl, and R. M. Uhl of Des Moines.

A short service was held at the home in Bisbee. A private service in Grinnell was conducted by Prof. Noble. Burial in Hazelwood cemetery.