

Esther Norris services today

Esther Robson Norris, 80, of the Mayflower Home died Monday evening at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Philip Ramstad, pastor of the Grinnell United Church of Christ—Congregational, officiating. Organist will be Norman Goodbrod. Pallbearers will be L.K. Brown, Grant Gale, James McNally, Homer Norton, Kenneth Saunders, and Harris Stafford. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society and may be left at the Smith Funeral Home.

The daughter of Warren G. and Grace L. Johnston Robson, she was born Sept. 9, 1897, at Scranton, Iowa. She attended school in Scranton and was graduated from Scranton High School. She later was graduated from Iowa State University. Following her education, she taught school in Ponda before coming to Grinnell in 1923 to teach home economics at Grinnell High School. She retired from teaching in 1962.

On April 27, 1934, she was married to Seldon H. Norris at Des Moines. Mrs. Norris was a member of the Grinnell United Church of Christ—Congregational, the Tuesday Club, the P.E.O., and Pi Rho Lambda.

She is survived by a son, Charles Norris of West Union, and four grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; three sisters, Mrs. Maude Wampler, Elsie Foskett, and Dorothy Robson; and two brothers, Paul Robson and Ray Robson.
