

Betty O'Connor services held

Betty O'Connor, 62, of 1821 Spencer St., Grinnell, died Monday morning at Grinnell General Hospital of an apparent heart attack. ~~Funeral~~

Funeral services for Mrs. O'Connor were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the United Church of Christ—Congregational, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the church, officiating. Organist was Elbert Smith. Pallbearers were Edward F. Bock, Albert C. Eisenman, Charles M. Manly, LeRoy Meredith, L.D. Norris, and Henry Switzer. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Should friends desire, memorials in Mrs. O'Connor's name may be made to the coronary care unit of Grinnell General Hospital. Friends may call the James-Schalinske Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of James and Florence Smith Goodwin, she was born July 29, 1915, in Des Moines. She was graduated from Roosevelt High School in Des Moines and later attended Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and the University of Iowa. She was graduated from Drake University with a degree in education. She later taught school in Greenfield and Rolfe.

On Aug. 14, 1939, she was married to Martin O'Connor in

Des Moines. During World War II, the couple lived in Biloxi, Miss., and Kearney, Neb., while Mr. O'Connor served with the U.S. Air Force. Following the war, they came to Grinnell.

Mrs. O'Connor was a member of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, Chapter JB of PEO, and Delta Gamma sorority while in college. She had taught in the Grinnell-Newburg school system for 13 years and earlier had a pre-school in her home.

She is survived by her two sons, Michael O'Connor of Centerville and John O'Connor of Cherokee; three grandchildren; and a brother, James E. Goodwin of Manchester. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Marty, on May 3, 1975; a brother, John S. Goodwin; and a sister, Virginia Goodwin, in infancy.

---

The Grinnell Herald-Register

No. 80

Thursday, Jan. 5, 1978