

H-R January 5, 1981
Budd Oakley rites today

Budd W. Oakley, 86, of the Mayflower Home died Thursday evening of an apparent heart attack.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad of the United Church of Christ—Congregational officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner. Veterans rites will be conducted by members of the Grinnell Veterans Ceremonial Unit.

Graveside rites will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Ames Municipal Cemetery. Should friends desire, memorials in Mr. Oakley's name may be made to the Mayflower Home or the American Cancer Society and left at the funeral home.

The son of William J. and Frances Miller Oakley, he was born Aug. 9, 1894, at Central City. He attended school at Central City, graduating from Central City High School. He served with the U.S. Army during World War I.

On Jan. 19, 1921, he was married to Anne L. Richter at Des Moines. Following their marriage, they spent 13 years with the Chautauqua Sector. Mr. and Mrs. Oakley moved to Ames in 1931 where he worked as a piano technician. They moved to Grinnell in 1963 and lived at the Mayflower Home.

Mr. Oakley was a member of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, the American Legion, the Masonic Lodge and the Elks Lodge.

There are no immediate survivors. He was preceded in death by his wife, his parents, four brothers and two sisters.