Anna Ohland dies at 105

Anna Ohland, 105, of Brooklyn, one of Poweshiek County's oldest residents, died Monday, Sept. 28, at the Brookhaven Nursing Home.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn, with the Rev. Lynn Williams of the First United Presbyterian Church officiating. Following cremation, Miss Ohland's ashes were buried at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The daughter of John H. and Anna Margaretta Rehder Ohland, she was born April 5, 1876, in Scott County. The family moved to Malcom Township in 1883. They later lived in Sheridan Township and in Malcom from 1945 to 1966. In 1966 she moved to Brooklyn and lived with the Burk family until 1967 when she became a resident of Brookhaven. She was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church and was a former member of the Madison Homemakers Club.

There are no immediate survivors. Miss Ohland was preceded in death by her parents; four brothers, Mark, Claus, John and Henry; and a sister, Rosy.
