

(SHEAR)

Marlae Olson

Marlae Olson, 46, of Gulfport, Miss., a native of Grinnell, died of a diabetic disorder Sunday, July 26, at Kessler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Miss.

A graveside service was conducted Wednesday evening at Prairie View Cemetery in Gilman, with Pastor Van Ducote of the Northwood Christian Center, Gulfport, officiating. The Smith Funeral Home of Grinnell was in charge of arrangements.

She was born July 4, 1952, in Grinnell to James Kenneth and Doris Pearce Olson. She was a high school teacher at the Northwood Christian Academy and a member of the Northwood Christian Center.

Surviving are her husband, Randy of Gulfport; one daughter, Megan Erwin of Gulfport; her mother, Doris Detrick of Marshalltown; and her sister, Gail Oldham of Golden, Colo.

CORRECTION

The name of the parents of the late Marlae Olson was incorrect in her obituary which appeared in the Thursday, July 31, issue of the Grinnell Herald-Register. She was the daughter of James Kenneth and Doris Pearce McIlrath.

H-R July 30, 1998

McILRATH

H-R 8-3-98