

C. MALCOLM ONTJEANK

DIED YESTERDAY

12 - 22 - 1908

Well Known and Popular Poweshiek Farmer Dies Suddenly at His Home in Westfield.

NEWS OF HIS DEATH CAME AS A SHOCK

Citizens of Grinnell and Vicinity Were All Prepared for the News of His Sudden Demise.

The people of Grinnell were shocked and surprised when they learned of the death of C. M. Ontjeank at his West field home, dying yesterday morning afternoon. They knew that Mr. Ontjeank was ill and as he had been an active and sturdy man, though more of a sufferer for years, they had not expected for the sudden demise. He recently underwent a surgical operation.

Mr. Ontjeank was a prominent and well known farmer. He was for years the president of the Grinnell and vicinity Grange. He was a good farmer and a very successful one. He was a very kind and generous man who was very popular with his friends for his generous and kind services will be remembered. He died this afternoon at the age of 61 and left eight children. The Herald will publish an extended obituary notice.
