

Oma Francelia Ormiston

(REX)

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, Feb. 5, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, for Oma Francelia Ormiston, 80, of Brooklyn, who died suddenly Friday, Feb. 4, 2000, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center in Grinnell.

Pastor Warren James of the Regular Baptist Church in Montezuma officiated. Soloist Craig Lang provided the selection, "Will the Circle be Unbroken?" and "In the Garden," accompanied by organist Kathleen Ramsey.

Casket bearers were Craig Van Arkel, William Henkle, Marvin Ehret, David Van Arkel, Mike Henkle and Rande Henkle. Honorary casket bearers were Dean and Marilyn Montgomery, Max Montgomery, Mildred and Raymond Ehret and Doris and James Van Arkel. Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial Cemetery in Brooklyn.

Oma Francelia Ormiston was born June 10, 1919, on a farm near Searsboro, the daughter of Fred H. and Hazel Watson Tish. She worked at the Maytag Company in Newton during World War II.

On Oct. 12, 1946, she was married to Rex Ormiston at the Little Mount Baptist Church west of Montezuma. They lived all their married life in Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Rex, and two brothers, one in infancy and Rex Tish.

Oma is survived by an aunt, cousins, and many good friends. Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Oma Francelia Ormiston

Oma Francelia Ormiston, 80, of Brooklyn died Feb. 4, 2000 at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Her funeral was Feb. 5 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. Warren James, pastor of the Regular Baptist Church in Montezuma, officiated.

Soloist Craig Lang sang "Will The Circle Be Unbroken?" and "In The Garden." Kathleen Ramsey was organist.

Casket bearers were Craig Van Arkel, William Henkle, Marvin Ehret, David Van Arkel, Mike Henkle and Rande Henkle. Honorary casket bearers were Dean and Marilyn Montgomery, Max Montgomery, Mildred and Raymond Ehret and Doris and James Van Arkel.

Interment was in Brooklyn Memorial

Cemetery. M.F. 2-16-2000

Mrs. Ormiston was born June 10, 1919 on a farm near Searsboro to Fred H. and Hazel (Watson) Tish. She worked at Maytag Company in Newton during the war. On Oct. 12, 1946, she married Rex Ormiston at the Little Mount Baptist Church, west of Montezuma.

The couple lived all of their married lives in Brooklyn.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Rex and two brothers, one in infancy and Rex Tish. Mrs. Ormiston is survived by an aunt, cousins and many good friends.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.