

Jacqueline Osborn

Mrs. Roger

H-R October 12, 2000

Jacqueline L. Osborn, 61, 230 Juniper Avenue, Kellogg, died Monday, Oct. 9, of cancer at Skiff Medical Center in Newton.

A memorial service was held Thursday morning, Oct. 12, at Smith Funeral Home in Grinnell with the Rev. Merle Smith of Newton, and the Rev. Mike Johnson of Fridley, Minn., officiating. Piano music was by Betty Ann Battey. Honorary bearers were Deb Bollhoefer, Karol Davis, Ruth Henning, Judy Norton and Connie Tally. Memorials may be made to the Kellogg Fire Department or the Jasper County Hospice.

She was born Dec. 13, 1938, in London, England, to William H. and Rose E. Kong Widdowson, and was raised and educated in London. She moved to the United States and was naturalized as a U.S. citizen Dec. 8, 1978. She moved to Grinnell and worked at the Grinnell Elks Lodge and the Grinnell Eagles Lodge.

On Oct. 28, 1993, she was married to Roger Osborn in Kellogg. The couple lived near Kellogg and operated RJ's Bar and Grill in Kellogg.

She is survived by her husband; one son Ronnie Schnoebelen of Prophetstown, Ill., one granddaughter and one great granddaughter. She was preceded in death by her parents, one daughter Linda Marie Schnoebelen and her step father, Azel France.