

H-R January 28, 1988
Elsie Osland rites Friday

Elsie Mae Osland, 83, of Gilman died Monday, Jan. 25, at Friendship Manor nursing home.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Steve Miller of the Gilman United Church of Christ officiating. Organist will be Betty Nikkel, and burial will be in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

The daughter of Henry W. and Caroline Buchenau Broders, she was born on April 7, 1904, in Sheridan Township.

She attended rural school.

On March 5, 1920, she was married to John G. Osland at Malcom. The couple farmed in the Gilman area, retiring in 1960 and moving to Gilman.

Mrs. Osland was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by two children, Kenneth H. of Grinnell and Mildred L. Dicken of Gilman; five grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Virgil and Raymond Broders, both of Grinnell; and a sister, Wilma Wallis of Tucson, Ariz.

John G.