

H-R February 4, 1985
Donald Owens

services held

Donald E. Owens, 61, of Lyn-nvile died Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 30, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Herrick Chapel on the Grinnell College Campus, with the Rev. Kenneth Santee, pastor of the Lynnvile Friends Church, officiating. Music was provided by Kathleen Heffner, organist, and Miriam Schultz, vocalist. Pallbearers were Robert Dale, Marion
Hardeman, Edward Huyser, Robert King, Russ Sadler and Kevin Schultz. Burial was in the Woodland Cemetery at Lynnvile.

Memorials may be made to Grinnell College and left at the Smith Funeral Home.

The son of Delbert and Ger-tie Marsh Owens, he was born Jan. 29, 1924, in Minnesota. He lived in Montana, attending local schools, before coming to the Searsboro and Lynnvile areas in the early 1950s. For several years he was employed in Des Moines by the Lovejoy Construction Co. before coming to Grinnell College in 1967 where he held a position with the Building and Grounds Department until his death.

Survivors include one brother, Floyd Owens of Billings, Mont.; one sister, Pearl Bouldin of Missoula, Mont.; two half-brothers, Charles Fairbanks of Billings and Orville Stafford of Las Vegas, Nev.; and one half-sister, Ruth Kruer of Texas.