

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1933

George Abel Palmer.

George Abel Palmer, son of S. A. Palmer and Anna H. Palmer, was born at Garrettsville, Pottawamie county, Iowa, November 10, 1885, at the time of his father's death. He was named after his father, who was a member of the Methodist church. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed.

He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed.

At an early age Mr. Palmer was with the Methodist church and has since been a consistent member of that denomination. In his relations he was respected but also a wholesome and a small place in the world. His father was always a strong and a strong.

About six weeks ago he went to Seattle, Washington, and he was killed there. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed. He was a member of the district schools of Pottawamie county and was attending the high school at Garrettsville, Iowa, when he was killed.