

H-R October 3, 1972
James Paschall

rites pending

James A. Paschall, 47, owner of Paschall Motor Co. of Grinnell, died early Monday morning at Grinnell General Hospital.

Mr. Paschall died of heart failure after having suffered an asthma attack.

Funeral services are pending at the Smith Funeral Home, where friends may call.

— Ernest

H-R October 6, 1973
Rites held for James Paschall

James A. Paschall, 47, of 723 Sixteenth Ave., Grinnell, died Monday morning, Oct. 3, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the United Church of Christ — Congregational, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad officiating. Organist was Deanna Acrea, and vocalist was Russelle Leggett.

Pallbearers were John Anin, Wayne Gadelmann, Fred Johnson, Larry Meredith, James Urfer, Bill Weeks, Victor Wilson and Roger Zimmerman. Honorary bearers were Robert Agnew, Paul Ahrens, Edd Bowers, Gerald Hagen, Claire Mithelman, Nick Ryan and Bill Werneburg.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Memorials in Mr. Paschall's name may be made to the Grinnell General Hospital Landscaping Fund and left in care of the funeral home.

The son of Chester A. and L. Hope Cochran Paschall, he was born June 27, 1936, at Osceola. The family moved to Des Moines, where he graduated from Roosevelt High School. He attended Drake University and later Arizona State University.

On Nov. 21, 1962, he was married to Patricia Ann Bacon in Des Moines. The couple lived in Des Moines for a few years and moved to Grinnell in May 1964. He was associated with his father in the operation of Paschall Motor Co.

Mr. Paschall was a member of the Hermon Masonic Lodge and the B.P.O. Elks Lodge. He was also a former member of the board of directors of the Grinnell Country Club Corp.

Survivors include his wife, Patty; his daughter, Barbara Ann Paschall of Grinnell; his mother, Hope Paschall of Grinnell; and his brother, Kenneth R. Paschall of Littleton, Colo. He was preceded in death by his father.