

Frank E.

Mrs. Ethel Patty,
Searsboro, Dies;
Tuesday Services

W-T July 14, 1938

Mrs. Ethel Patty, wife of Mr. Frank Patty of Searsboro, died suddenly Saturday evening following two days' hospitalization in Grinnell.

Services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at the West Liberty Church of Christ east of Searsboro. In charge will be Mr. Marvin Johnson of Menlo, and Smith Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Pallbearers will be Irvin James, Al Johnson, Alvie Johnson, Kenneth McAtee, Eldon Playle and Charles Bryan. Interment will be at the West Liberty church cemetery.

She was the daughter of James and Lillie Bennett Ashing and was born on a farm five miles south of Searsboro on April 19, 1892. She was married to Frank Edward Patty on December 31, 1912, at Montezuma.

Although they had no children of their own, Mrs. Charles (Janet) Bryan of Lynnville was raised by Mr. and Mrs. Patty from early childhood.

Mrs. Patty had lived in the Searsboro community all of her life and was baptized and belonged to the West Liberty Church of Christ.

She is survived by her husband. Preceding her in death were her parents and one half-brother.
