

OBITUARY

ANNA PAUL
H-R Dec 15, 1955

Anna Paul was born August 2nd, 1888 at Gilman, Iowa and died at Grinnell on December 7th, 1955.

T. H. Paul
The daughter of James and Annette Lowry, she attended the Gilman schools and was a life-long resident of this vicinity. A school teacher near Gilman following her graduation from high school, she later married T. H. Paul of Newton on January 2nd, 1913. The couple resided on a farm near Newburg until they moved to Montezuma in 1943. In 1950 they moved to Grinnell.

Survivors are her husband, two sons, James of Gilman and Francis of Montezuma; and three daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Grace) McDonald, Grinnell; Mrs. Harold (Ada Pearl) Inman, Montezuma; and Mrs. Harry (Annette) Barton of Liscomb.

Also surviving is a brother, William of New Providence; a half-sister, Joyce Lowry and her step-mother, Mrs. James Lowry of Marshalltown.

Her parents and two sons preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 10th from the Congregational church at Newburg with the Rev. Nelson Murdock of Laurel and the Rev. Mrs. Helen Turner of Newburg officiating.

Flower committee was composed of Mrs. Adelbert Sears, Mrs. Eva Pepoon, Mrs. Glen Moorcroft and Mrs. John Jackson.

Pallbearers were Adelbert Sears, David Paul, Paul Reed, William Hudson, Charles Hudson and Joe Sec. Honorary pallbearers were Glenn Moorcroft, Lawrence Madill, Frank Newcomer, John McIlrath, Richard Burroughs and John Jackson.

Interment was at Prairie View Cemetery at Gilman.