

William M. Paul Dies Suddenly

William M. Paul, 75, of 122 North Chelton Road, Colorado Springs, Colo., died suddenly last Sunday morning, apparently of a heart attack. His death occurred a day after the Weldon Paul family of Brooklyn had arrived for a week's visit. 12-12-65

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 15, in Colorado Springs where burial rites were also conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul lived in Brooklyn and vicinity until four years ago when they moved to Colorado.

He is survived by his widow and the following eleven children: Robert of Cedar Falls; Neil and Donald of Denver, Colo.; Keith of Waterloo; Mrs. George (Dorothy) Polser of Chicago; Kenneth and Mrs. George (Beulah) Brown of Grinnell; Mrs. Dallas (Darlene) Massie and Mrs. William (Phyllis) Mudd of Colorado Springs; Wayne of Boulder, Colo.; and Weldon of Brooklyn.

4--Brooklyn (la.) Chronicle--

-December 16, 1965