

Mae Paulson H.

Mae Paulson Services Set ¹⁰/₁/₇₂

Mrs. Mae Paulson, 81, the wife of Martin H. Paulson of 1501 Prairie St., died late Sunday evening at St. Francis Manor. She had been in failing health the past six months.

The daughter of Fred and Celeste Freeman Elmore, she was born Jan. 15, 1891, near Grinnell. She attended Grinnell High School and later graduated from Four C Commercial College in Des Moines.

She was married to Martin H. Paulson Jan. 8, 1916, in Des Moines. The couple had eight children: Howard Martin Paulson of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. William (Ruth Evelyn) Taylor of Grinnell, Mrs. Lawrence (Doris Marie) Sleenwenhoek of Malcom, Merle Elmore Paulson of Grinnell, Mrs. John (Genevieve Mae) Bailey of Gilman, Keith R. Paulson of Grinnell, Mrs. Kenneth (Phyllis Jean) Saunders of Grinnell, and Ross Elbert Paulson, who died in 1922 as a child.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulson had lived in or near Grinnell since their marriage and had farmed west of Grinnell for 21 years before moving to town in 1953. Mrs. Paulson was a member of the Victor Grange and the Grandmothers Club.

She is survived by her husband Martin, her seven children, 24 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her son; two sisters, Miss Emma Celeste Elmore and Mrs. Stacy (Cora) Jordan; and one brother, Lafe Elmore.

Funeral services for Mrs. Paulson will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with burial in Hazelwood Cemetery. Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.

Mae Paulson Services Held ¹⁰/₁/₇₂

Funeral Services for Mrs. Mae Paulson, 81, who died Sunday evening at St. Francis Manor following a long illness, were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Elder Floy Gross, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church in Queens City, Mo., officiated. Organist was Mrs. Don Renaud, and pallbearers included Edward Bailey, Jerry Deal, Howard Hafkey, Robert Paulson, Donald Taylor, and Kenneth Taylor.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.