Mrs. Payne dies at 80

Charles E.

Ina Chatterton Payne, 80, died Sunday evening at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center. 5-19-76

Memorial services for Mrs. Payne were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Denison Chapel at the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip Ramstad, pastor of the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. He was assisted by Joseph F. Wall, Parker professor of history at Grinnell College. Music was provided by Mrs. Wayne Denny, pianist, and Mrs. Carl Orr, vocalist. Graveside services will be held at a later date at Oakland Cemetery, Peterson, Ia., following cremation. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Dr. Allen and Jennie Barber Chatterton, she was born July 15, 1896, at Peterson. She attended schools at Peterson and Sutherland, graduating from Sutherland High School. She was a 1918 graduate of Grinnell College, receiving her master's degree from Radcliffe College in 1923. From 1923 to 1925 she was a member of the history faculty at Grinnell College.

On July 11, 1925, she was married to Prof. Charles E. Payne of Grinnell College in Chicago, Ill. They made their home in Grinnell until Prof. Payne's death.

Mrs. Payne was a member of the Magoun Club in Grinnell and was a charter member of the Grinnell League of Women Voters. She was also a member of the Congregational Church.

Following her husband's death in 1947, Mrs. Payne taught at the Emma Willard School for Girls in Troy, N.Y. She retired from teaching in 1961 to live in Middlebury, Vt., for two years before returning to Grinnell in 1963.

There are no immediate survivors. Mrs. Payne was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Charles; and three brothers, Dr. Carl Chatterton, Ralph Chatterton, and a brother who died in infancy.
