Miss Olga P. Pearson, 81, of St. Paul, Minn., died Sunday, Mar. 26, at Unity Hospital in Fridley, Minn. She was the daughter of Olaf W. and Johanna Jonsson Pearson and was born Jan. 25, 1891 in Malmo, Sweden.

Her family came to the United States in 1892 and later moved to Grinnell in 1905, where she attended the public schools. She was employed at the former Morrison and Schultz glove factory, Bartling and Nuckolls Jewelry Store, and Grinnell Washing Machine Co.

She received her nurse-training in Chicago and later was employed for a number of years in Chicago and St. Paul, as a licensed practical nurse. For some 12 years she was associated with St. Luke's Hospital in St. Paul before her health failed her in 1963.

While in Grinnell, Miss Pearson was a charter member of the American Legion Auxiliary and a member of the First United Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her two brothers and one sister: Arthur W. Pearson of Waterloo, Robert N. Pearson of San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Herbert (Bertha) Dalldorf of St. Paul, Minn. She was preceded in death by her parents; two brothers and one sister: Louis A. Pearson, Oscar A. Pearson, and Mrs. Anna Cooley.

Funeral services for Miss Olga Pearson were held at 1:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Clifford Croxford, minister of the First United Presbyterian Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Willard Heffner. Pallbearers were Harry Bitcon, Elmer Burnson, J.C. Parrott, Bill Ritter, Clair Strand, and Fred E. Taylor. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.
