

OBITUARY

WALTER CALVIN PEASE

H-R, Sept. 27, 1956
 Walter Calvin, son of Richard and Anna Pease, was born May 13, 1888 near Brooklyn, and died in a Grinnell hospital Sept. 26, 1956, after suffering a severe stroke the previous week.

He was a retired farmer and belonged to the Malcom Methodist church.

On Sept. 2, 1909 he was married to Ethel Smith of Brooklyn. Eight children were born to this union: Mrs. C. L. Davis of Union Mills, Ill. W. Florence, Consistory of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. L. L. Davis of Ocala, Fla.; Mrs. Louis Helen Pease of Blairtown, W. Va.; Mrs. Jerome Haunsperger of Kelllogg, and Mrs. Jerome Haunsperger of Kelllogg.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and five daughters, 23 grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Effie Davis of Monticello, and two brothers, Clarence of Des Moines and Lester of Toledo. His parents, one sister, three brothers, one grandson and one great-granddaughter preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Sept. 23 at Malcom Methodist church. Rev. Packard and Rev. A. W. McBain officiated. Burial was at Malcom. Pallbearers were Elmer Lyman, Floyd Lyman, Alvin Datta, Forrest Read, Glen Read and Eben Montgomery.