

Milton D. Peters, Former Montezuman, Dies in Arizona

Milton D. Peters, a former Montezuma businessman, died Wednesday, Jan. 22, in St. Luke's Episcopal hospital, Phoenix, Ariz., after being hospitalized three days.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 27, at the Assembly of God church in Oskaloosa for Mr. Peters. The Rev. Max Johnson officiated at the 1 p.m. service. Mrs. Mearl Minter, organist, accompanied the soloist, the Rev. Delbert Bittner. Casket bearers were Paul Moore, Francis Collette, Rodger Peters, Richard Peters, Gary Thompson, Emil Gerard, Carol Gerard and William Castel. Interment was in Union Mills cemetery.

Born Sept. 13, 1907, in Malcom, he had been living in Oskaloosa for 21 years. He was the son of Frank F. and Edna Douglas Peters. He was a field representative for Allis Chalmers company.

Surviving are his wife, Vergie Peters; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Alice) Bishop of Stout and Mrs. Robert (Robert) Bishop of Waterloo; one son, Lyle E. Peters of Dubuque; five grandchildren and three brothers: Delmar Peters of Phoenix, Ariz., Earl Peters of Newton, and Melvin Peters of Montezuma.