Obituary

VICTOR H. PETERSON
(Contributed)

Victor H. Peterson was the youngest son of pioneer parents and lived most of his life in Minnesota and South Dakota. His parents, John and Anna Swanson Peterson, came from Sweden in sailing vessels, and he was born April 2, 1879 in Goodhue, Minnesota.

Victor Peterson, 81, passed away Saturday, October 22, 1960, at his home, 313 East St., Grinnell, Iowa. He had been in failing health for several years and was critically ill the past few weeks.

He received his early education in the Goodhue public schools and he later attended the University of Minnesota Business College. He served for 25 years as Treasurer of the School Board in South Dakota. He also served his community as Assessor and as a member of the Federal Appraisal Board.

On April 22nd, 1919, he was united in marriage with Hazel V. Myers at Grinnell, Iowa. The service was conducted by the bride's uncle, Rev. E. W. Gregson. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson lived most of their life at Oelrichs, South Dakota. Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Peterson purchased the Annie Sanders home on south East Street, where they have lived in retirement from their ranch in South Dakota.

He is survived by his wife of the home, Hazel Peterson, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and all of his brothers and sisters.
