Mrs. Ernest L. 1938 Phillips Dies in Los Angeles

L. Ernest

Mrs. Ernest L. Phillips of 2000 Victoria Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., passed away suddenly at 4 o'clock a. m., June 14. She was buried June 16 at 3 o'clock p. m. in Rosedale cemetery in the same lot with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Phillips, Harry Holmes, husband of Sara Phillips, I. B. Newhall, husband of Grace Phillips, and two of her daughters-in-law. Her three sons and two grandsons were pall bearers.

If she had lived until June 24 she would have been eighty years of age. Belle Ferguson and her sister, Ella Ferguson were orphans and were raised by their uncle, Mike Stevens, who was a brother of Mrs. Emery Bartlett, Mrs. Cushman and Mrs. Moore, and father of Ida Stevens.

who married Will Miles.

A. P. Phillips and son, Ernest, had a hardware store on Fourth Avenue in Grinnell for many years.

Ernest Phillips and Belle Ferguson were married September 3, 1879, and had four children, Mrs. Vena Martin, Ray, Lucius and Earl, all living in Los Angeles.

Five years ago last April Ernest Phillips had a paralytic stroke and is unable to speak but can understand what is said to him and can use his left hand a little to write an answer. He can not walk and has to have a day and night nurse.

Ella Ferguson, who lived with her sister until Ernest was taken down, has been an invalid for many years with a nurse to care for her and is now living near Hollywood.
