Former Resident Of Newburg Area, Dies

Word has been received at Newburg of the death at Algona of a former resident, Monroe Phillips, 82.

Funeral services are slated to be held at Algona this week.

Mr. Monroe was born on a farm 1 1/2 miles southwest of Newburg and resided there for many years before moving to Algona. He was married to the former Ola Green of Newburg, who preceded him in death.

Survivors include two daughters, Irma Palmer and Alma Smith, both of Algona.
