Mrs. Clara Phipps Dies At Her Home

James

Mrs. Clara May Phipps, 71, the wife of James Phipps, passed away Sunday afternoon at her home at 919 Pearl St.

She was the daughter of John and Josephine Watson Mason, and was born at Marion, Mo., on June 12, 1892. She attended high school in Marshalltown.

In 1913 she was married to James Phipps and to this union were born two children: Mrs. Harold (Mary Louise) Andes and Virgil Clifton Phipps, born of Grinnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Phipps had lived in Grinnell for the past 43 years. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, the New Lutheran church, and the Episcopal church.

Survivors include her husband James, her son and daughter, and two grandchildren, John Wayne Andes of Grinnell, and Mrs. William Pearl, Ann, daughter of Virgil Phipps. Also surviving are two sisters and one brother: Amanda Marleen, Nell Myron, and Martin Edwin; and an uncle and aunt, Walter Emery of Englewood, Colo., and Stella Schenker of Crest, Calif. She has preceded in death by her parents.

Funeral services for Mrs. Phipps will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Santa Funeral Home with the Rev. Charles Lundis of the Presbyterian church officiating. Burial will be made in Rock Creek cemetery east of Grinnell. Flowers may call at the Santa Funeral Home.
