^{Grinnell} Perley Pilgrim Is Summoned

Funeral Services For Beloved And Respected Grinnell Man Are Held Sunday.

CONDUCTED BY
REV. W. W. BOLT, D. D.

Mr. Pilgrim Had Lived All His Active
Life in This Community.

Beautiful and impressive funeral services for Perley H. Pilgrim, for many years an honored and respected resident of this community were conducted Sunday afternoon from the home at 532 Broad street, in charge of Rev. W. W. Bolt, D. D., who spoke words of cheer and comfort to the mourners. Burial was in Hazelwood. The pall bearers were Erick Erickson, Fred Heinle, Bert Whitaker, W. C. Rayburn, Walter Deming and Pearl Garner.

Music was rendered by a quartet composed of Mesdames John C. Carter and Howard Hyde and Messrs. George and Will Evans, with Miss Cheryl Holmes at the piano.

Those present from out of town to attend the funeral included Mrs. Ella Sulser of Iowa City, Mr. and Mrs. George Bonewell and Mrs. Ora Duffus and daughter from Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hulsizer of Des Moines, C. W. Pilgrim of Decorah, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sulser and family of Des Moines, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sulser and son of Des Moines, Mrs. John Parrott of Omaha, Neb., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hicks and family of Montezuma, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Vanderveer and family of Oskaloosa and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vinal of Kellogg.

Mr. Pilgrim had lived in Grinnell or vicinity ever since he was about fourteen years old. He was born in Stark county, Ill., in July of 1862, the son of Croft and Susan Swank Pilgrim. His death followed a brief illness from pneumonia.

He was married on Sept. 9, 1885, to Anna Sulser and their life has been marked by quiet happiness and unselfish devotion. The two daughters and one son who were born to them were reared in the atmosphere of a Christian home. Working together and striving ever toward the best things for over forty years, Mr. and Mrs. Pilgrim have gone through life side by side and those who know them have given them their full measure of affection and respect. The family was also augmented by four small children, nieces and nephews of Mr. Pilgrim, who, when their parents died became members of the Pilgrim home and received the same loving care which Mr. and Mrs. Pilgrim bestowed upon their own children. These children of a brother of Mr. Pilgrim are Mary, now Mrs. Stanton Harris of Ames, Croft, Raymond and Egbert Pilgrim.

Mr. Pilgrim is survived by Mrs. Pilgrim, two daughters, Mrs. John Spooner and Mrs. Will Steenhoek; one son, C. M. of this city; two brothers, William N. of Detroit, Michigan, and N. O. of this city; and one sister, Mrs. Nava Eastman of Lancaster, California.
