

30 Feb. 15, 1995

Edith Plikuhn

Edith I. Plikuhn, 82, of Grinnell, died Feb. 5 in Grinnell Hospital. Services were held Feb. 7 at Smith Funeral Home. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Survivors include five daughters, Joanne Danovski of Cedar Rapids, Louise Evans of New York, N.Y., Diane Rook-Johnson of Pequot Lakes, Minn., Bonnie Thompson of Malcom and Charlotte Parrish of Gainesville, Ga.; and a brother, Sherman Figland of Los Angeles.

August 10

Edith Plikuhn M-R

Edith Louise Plikuhn, 82, of Grinnell died Sunday, Feb. 5, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. David Hagstrom, interim pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist was Margaret Amo.

Pallbearers were Clarence Cogley, David Figland, Sheldon Figland, Delmar Larsen, Raymond Larsen, Leonard Latcham and Bob Wilkins. Honorary bearers were Eric Evans, Todd Evans, Michael Rook, Terry Rook and Gregory Thompson.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Charles O. and Anna Marie Enerson Figland, she was born Oct. 26, 1912, on a farm south of Grinnell. She attended rural school and Grinnell High School.

She was married to Glenn F. Griffin in June 1932, in Lancaster, Mo. They lived in Jump River, Wis., where they farmed. She was married to August O. Plikuhn in July 1943 in Chicago, and they continued to farm in Jump River until 1959 when they moved to Grinnell.

Mrs. Plikuhn had been employed