OBITUARY

CARRIE MARGARET QUIRE (Contributed)

Carrie Margaret Quire, daughter of the late George and Ida Smith, was born May 17, 1886, in Taintor, Iowa, and passed away March 16, 1965.

She was united in marriage with Dr. A. F. Quire on February 19, 1905. To this union were born five children.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Dr. A. F. Quire, in 1950; one son, George, in 1957; and two daughters, Louise in 1935 and Betty Jean in 1928; also, her parents and one sister.

She is survived by two daughters, Dorothy of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Ardena Nelson of Lynnville; two grandchildren, Mrs. Kay Gause of Lynnville, and James Quire of Iowa City; and three great grandchildren, Curtis Connie and Cynthia Gause.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and had resided in Lynnville most of her life. She devoted much of her time to music and community affairs, also giving piano lessons, and in later years was the librarian of the Lynnville library. She will be remembered as a cheerful person and for her many kind and helpful deeds.

Funeral services were held on March 18 at 2 p.m. in charge of the Rev. Peter R. Schuler. Mrs. Howard Macy accompanied Mrs. Doyle Schultz and Mrs. Arl Crews as they sang "In The Garden" and Mrs. Schultz as she sang as a solo "Sunrise."

Pallbearers were Forrest Halbloom, Ray Ver Steeg, Arl Crews, Doyle Schultz, Marion DeKock, and Arle Joe DeKock. Interment was in Woodland cemetery.

In charge of the floral offerings were Mrs. Cliff Crews, Mrs. Dean Lewis, and Mrs. Roscoe Sparks.
