

H-R January 19, 1984

Charles Quire

memorial held

Charles A. Quire, 91, of Tucson, Ariz., formerly of Grinnell, died Dec. 31.

Memorial services were conducted at the Valley Funeral Home in Tucson on Jan. 3.

A native of Searsboro, he moved to Grinnell when he was a small boy and attended Grinnell schools. He then moved to Worden, Mont., where he was employed by the Northern Pacific Railroad for several years. He moved to Spokane, Wash., and was a licensed public accountant until he retired and moved to Tucson.

Mr. Quire was married to Hattie Johnson on June 25, 1914. Mrs. Quire died Dec. 25, 1975.

Survivors include one daughter, Jane Miller; one grandson; two great-grandsons; and three sisters, Della Quire and Jessie Reagan of Grinnell and Alice Lundquist of Minneapolis, Minn.