

100. 11. 1919

7-11 MRS. W. P. RAFFETY. 1919

Jane Haddock was born at Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 21, 1837. She came to Iowa in 1854, and was married to W. P. Raffety, Nov. 22, 1860, in Jones county, Iowa. In 1872 they removed to Nodaway county, Missouri; subsequently they moved to Westfield, Poweshiek county, settling there in 1877, and later, in the year 1890, the family moved into Grinnell. Her husband died July 9, 1902, and the widow went to her rest July 3, 1919. She was the mother of six children, George William, Nellie Norris, Renna Raffety, Wathena Kearney and Jennie Norris, the latter two live to mourn a mother's loss. One brother, Henry Haddock, of Los Angeles, also survives. There are three grandchildren: Renna Whitford, Wendell Norris and Wilfred Kearney, and one great-grandchild, Arthur James Whitford.

The decedent was a devoted wife, a loving mother and a consistent Christian who gave her heart to the Saviour in her youth. She was a member of the Grinnell Baptist church of which the family were all honored members.

Mrs. Raffety valued her church associations. She looked well to her household, and her children rise up and call her blessed.

Rev. J. W. Beatty, brother-in-law of the deceased, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Peterson of the Baptist church.

The bearers were Samuel Nelson, Frank Marvin, George Brown, John Cessna, H. B. Westlake and E. M. Kearney.

Miss Margery Warner sang very sweetly, two hymns.
