

THE MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN...JUNE 5, 1969

Funeral services for a well known Montevideo businessman, John Howard Ramsey, were held at the City of the Angels Church, the Society of the Holy Sepulchre, at 10 a.m. on Tuesday afternoon, June 3. Music was provided by Miss Nancy Diersch.

Casket bearers were Doug Poirier, Russell Thibault, Edith Thibault, Robert Thibault, Lawrence Fleming and Stephen LaFrie. Honorary bearers were George Robinson, Fred Coxham, Tom Ross, William Sadler, Charles Zorn and Lawrence Wilson.

Mr. Ramsey, 76, passed away Saturday, May 31, at his home, 1401 St. Charles St., in St. Louis, Mo. The son of John and Sarah Ramsey, he was born in Poweshiek County on Dec. 11, 1892. In his youth he attended a rural school and helped with the farm work. In 1916, he was married in marriage with the former, Doris Peckert and to this union one son was born. They lived on a farm southwest of Brookfield until 1947 when they moved to Montevideo. He spent Inheritance was at the Brookline I.O.O.F. Cemetery.

Mr. Ramsey, 76, passed away Saturday, May 31, at his home, 1401 St. Charles St., in St. Louis, Mo. The son of John and Sarah Ramsey, he was born in Poweshiek County on Dec. 11, 1892. In his youth he attended a rural school and helped with the farm work. In 1916, he was married in marriage with the former, Doris Peckert and to this union one son was born. They lived on a farm southwest of Brookfield until 1947 when they moved to Montevideo. He spent

He was a member of the Brooklyn IOOF Lodge. Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Marvin and his wife, Sally, of Montezuma; two grandchildren, Mrs. Dean Barber of Ames, and Jack Ramsey, serving in the Navy at Lemore, Calif.; a great-granddaughter, Michelle Barber; a sister, Mildred Korns of Brooklyn; two brothers, Ross of Brooklyn and Lyle of Adel.

Funeral services were held in Montezuma Tuesday for John Howard Ramsey, 77, former Brooklyn area farmer who died Saturday in an Iowa City hospital. He suffered a series of heart attacks.

Ramsey was raised in the Brooklyn area and farmed south of town until 1947 when he moved to Montezuma where he operated a bulk oil tank-wagon.

The rites were at the Steffy Funeral Home with Rev. Martin Gruenich officiating. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery, Brooklyn.

Survivors include his widow, Dora; a son, Marvin; sister, Mrs. Mildren Korn, Brooklyn; and two brothers, Ross of Brooklyn, and Lyle, Adel.

June 5, 1969