

George Randolph Passes Away In Glendale, Calif.

G-H 3-5-1935

Word has just been received by Grinnell friends of the sudden passing of George Randolph at his home in Glendale, Calif., on February 26, following a severe heart attack.

Services were conducted from the Jewel City Mortuary at Glendale on March 1 and later in May his daughter, Lois, expects to come east with the body for burial at Toledo, Iowa, beside that of his wife who passed away many years ago.

Mr. Randolph was born in Pennsylvania and came to Iowa when a boy, settling near Traer, and lived all his life in Tama and Poweshiek counties until he departed for California in 1915. For the past twenty years he has lived at various points in southern California with his daughter, Lois.

For a number of years Mr. Randolph was a prominent land owner and farmer in Sheridan township and still retains part of his holdings. Following the death of his wife he moved to Grinnell and purchased a home on south East street to give his two daughters advantage of the educational facilities available here.

He leaves to mourn his loss two daughters, Miss Lois Randolph and Mrs. Mable Stroup, one grandson, Richard Stroup, two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Gallagher of Pasadena, Cal., and Mrs. Frank Du Pre of Spokane, Washington, a number of nieces and nephews and a host of old friends and neighbors who recognized the sterling worth of his character.
