

H-R
Rites held for H-R Nov. 12, 1975
Eva Ratcliff

John V.
LYNNVILLE (Special)— Mrs. Eva Mae Ratcliff, 84, of Lynnville died Saturday, Nov 1, at Skiff Memorial Hospital in Newton.

Funeral services were held Nov 4 at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Ernest Thompson officiating. Burial was at the Friends Cemetery at Lynnville.

The daughter of Walter U.
and Leida Campbell Bowen, she was born June 25, 1891, in Lynnville. She was married to John V. Ratcliff in 1909.

Mrs. Ratcliff was a member of the Friends Church and served as Lynnville librarian for 14 years.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Walter of Monroe and Virgil and Roy, both of Newton; two daughters, Eva Johnson of Sand Point, Idaho, and Betty Collum of Grinnell; and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a daughter, Marilyn; a brother and a granddaughter.